Detailed Action

This action is in response to the response filed on 10/18/2006.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I – Claims 1-8. Group for processing the loan information for each loan to detect predatory lending without requiring knowledge of predatory lending laws on the part of a user of the system.

Species II – claims 9-16. A processor being adapted to process the information for each loan to detect predatory lending without requiring knowledge of predatory lending laws on the part of a user of the system.

Species III – claims 17-21. A processor being adapted to process the loan information to calculate a score for each variance between the loan information and at least one of the plurality of predatory lending laws and the general loan information.

Species IV- claims 22-28. A computer readable medium completing the step of comparing information for each loan to a plurality of predatory lending laws and to the general loan information to detect one or more variances.

Species V – claims 29-36. A computer readable medium scoring each variance based upon the degree of variance based on the knowledge of the predatory lending laws on behalf of a user of the system is not required.

Art Unit: 3693

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently there is no generic claim.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
